WORKFORCE INNOVATION AND OPPORTUNITY ACT
LOCAL WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT BOARD OF GUAYNABO-TOA BAJA

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Guaynabo – Toa Baja Workforce Development Board is now accepting Training Provider Applications to be approved and added to the Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL) for Program Year 2022-2023

Section 122 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunities Act of July 22, 2014, as amended, (hereinafter "WIOA") establishes the procedure for identifying training service providers. That is why the Local Board of the Guaynabo-Toa Baja Local Workforce Development Area invites public and private educational institutions, and community-based organizations to submit and complete applications for initial or subsequent eligibility as training service providers.

Entities interested in belonging to the of Eligible Training Providers List (ETPL), must request their inclusion through the new software Participant Record Information System (PRIS). In order to use the system, you must request access through the mail: prisddec@ddec.pr.gov. PRIS will assign you a registration number that will be used at all times for your identification.

In addition, entities should also request by email the Guidance for the inclusion on Eligible Training Providers List to the following address: juntalocal@gtbwioa.com. A PowerPoint orientation of the procedure to follow on PRIS will be sent for the benefit of applicants. All questions regarding specifications should be made in writing to juntalocal@gtbwioa.com. The delivery must be made in accordance with the Specification Guidance for the Submission of Proposals.

In order to update inventory and report on the programs of educational training and learning institutions, and for the purpose of creating the Training Service Providers Registration for the Program Year 2022-2023, we invite you to apply for the Training Service Providers List with their respective programs based on the following occupational demand:
